VISITORS MAY HAVE WHITE WAY

High School Day Illuminations to Include Lighting of Dome.

High School Day visitors will have a "white way" again this year if the weather man is not too obdurate and grants even favorable conditions. The University plans to have a half circle of electric lights around the campus walk in front of Academic Hall, and the Academic Hall dome will be illuminated by strings of lights lowered from the top. The lighting of the turret above the dome is a possibility.

For the Fourteenth Annual High School Meet on Rollins Field Saturday afternoon, forty-three high schools have entered 350 students, a decrease of only 13 from last year. If the weather permits, Coach Schulte thinks that previous records in the pole vault, high and low hurdles, quarter mile, half mile, and possibly in the discuss and shot put will be broken.

Division one schools, which are Kemper and Wentworth Military Academies and the Polytechnic Institute of Kansas City, are all sending good men. "Pat" Murphy, former Missouri athlete, is coaching the Polytechnic Institute team. Kansas City Central High School is sending two stars, George Williams, a brother of Fred Williams, in the high hurdles, and George Reber in the discuss throw.

Harrisonville will be represented by a team that has already won two small meets this year at Warrensburg and William Jewell. Mt. Vernon is sending Williams, who was the individual receiving the most points in the meet last year. Jefferson City is sending a star, McClung, who can put the shot 47 feet and throw the discuss 115 feet.

The meet will be the same as three interscholastic meets as no schools in one division will be allowed to compete with schools in another division.

WANTS HOME DEFENSE LEAGUE

National Society Asks Mayor Boggs to Organize Local Guard.

Mayor J. E. Goggs today received an appeal from the American Defense Society for the organization of a Home Defense League in Columbia. The appeal follows the request of Secretary of War Baker that the governor of each state organize a Public Safety Commission for the administration of activities during the present crisis. The Home Defense Leagues will supplement the work of the state commission.

Twelve things that the "home guards" can do are listed in a pamphlet sent to Mayor Goggs. Chief among these, in relation to Columbia, are suppressing local disorders, co-operating with the police and military organizations of adjoining towns, assisting in taking military, industrial farming and personal censuses, and helping enroll men for industrial and military service.

"I think a Home Defense League in Columbia would do considerable good in the present crisis," said Mr. Boggs this morning. "A good many of the things suggested are not practical in this part of the country, but some of the suggestions could be carried out with good results."

WILL TELL OF WAR PROBLEMS

E. W. Stephens to Give Series of Talks to Sunday School Class.

E. W. Stephens, who recently returned from a trip through the East with the State Capitol Commission, has decided to give a series of talks on war problems to his class at the Baptist Sunday School. Last Sunday, 174 persons heard Mr. Stephens tell of his eastern trip. "Public and Private Service" will be the topic for next Sunday, and the rest of the series will be announced later. In his two weeks' trip, Mr. Stephens visited Boston, New York and Washington. He talked with President Wilson, Champ Clark and other Government officials.

Railroads To Employ Women.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Three more railroads today announced that in the future they would employ women in all departments.

CAMPUS TRAFFIC REGULATIONS

All parties who are in the habit of parking automobiles or of approaching Academic Hall from the south side are hereby requested to stop blowing horns or using the "cut-out" after entering University property. The noise is exceedingly objectionable to classes in rooms on the south side of Academic Hall, and the class work is seriously interrupted.

Automobiles should be parked on either side of the road or in the stand on the east or west sides. No machines should be parked immediately south from the line of the steps. All machines should approach Academic Hall on the east side of the sunken garden and leave on the west side.

Conforming to these traffic rules will greatly improve the service to this building and will avoid any further accident or nuisance. In case these regulations cannot be followed, it will be necessary to require machines to park on the street outside of the grounds. Co-operation in the matter will be greatly appreciated. SUPERINTENDENT OF GROUNDS.
